

Customers

RSA Insurance Group (RSA) has been providing insurance for over 300 years and is one of the UK's leading providers of general insurance. We insure over 4 million people in the UK, providing our customers with a wide range of products including motor, home and pet insurance.

We are committed to going the extra mile for our customers. A satisfied and loyal customer base is core to our business. We aim to:

- Deliver consistent and reliable levels of customer service
- Act with integrity, due care and diligence
- Communicate openly, honestly and with sensitivity and understanding
- Listen to our customers
- Handle complaints fairly and promptly
- Respect our customers' rights to privacy and confidentiality
- Protect our customers and our business from fraud

Our approach to handling customer complaints

Unfortunately, as with any other business there are times when customers feel we have not met their expectations. We take all complaints very seriously. Every complaint is different and we deal with each one on its merits. We have robust processes in place to ensure we handle all complaints fairly and in a timely manner. We also use the lessons learnt from previous complaints to amend our processes and to improve our customer service.

Complaints Information

The table below contains information about the complaints we received during the period 1st July to 31st December 2015, and the standards we achieved in handling these complaints from receipt to resolution. The data refers to the complaints we received from customers of all the companies in the RSA Insurance Group. These include Royal & Sun Alliance Reinsurance Limited, Sun Insurance Office Limited, The Marine Insurance Company Limited, and the brand names RSA, Royal & SunAlliance, RSA echoice, MORE TH>N, and MORE TH>N Business.

	Number of complaints opened	Number of complaints closed	Complaints closed within 8 weeks	Closed complaints upheld by firm
General insurance and pure protection	7,763	7,776	98%	57%

The above figures represent only a very small percentage of our customer base. Of approximately 4 million policies in force with RSA between 1st July and 31st December 2015, a complaint arose in only 0.19% of cases.
